

WELCOME TO THE BEAUTIFUL

Astoria Column

The Astoria Column is the perfect place to begin your Pacific Coast vacation. The park grounds are open daily from sunup to sundown. Here, you'll find picnic tables, benches, public restrooms, and viewfinders providing views of the Columbia River, the Astoria-Megler Bridge, Young's Bay and Saddle Mountain. There's also access to the Cathedral Tree hiking trail.

Don't forget to stop in the gift shop to pick up a glider before climbing the to the viewing platform. It's only 164 steps to what we call the most beautiful view in the world.
